- The capture of 11 villages during the course of an attack on positions held by the murtadd Taliban Movement in Khurasan Wilayah.

❖ North Baghdad Wilayah:

Several Islamic State security units launched an attack on a Rafidi Federal Police position and multiple Rafidi militia targets in several areas of the wilayah. One of the units assaulted a Rafidi Federal Police barracks in the area of Farhatiyyah near Balad Station, with clashes taking place that led to three murtaddin being killed and a Humvee being disabled. When reinforcements arrived to support the murtaddin, an explosive device was detonated on a 4-wheel drive vehicle, leading to 6 of them being killed and wounded. Meanwhile, a number of Islamic State soldiers assaulted the home of the murtadd, 'Abdullah Ahmad Haza', who serves as the representative for the village of Farhatiyyah and as the head of the Rafidi Mobilization in the village, leading to one of his bodyguards being killed and another being wounded. Likewise, two explosive devices were detonated on a reinforcement unit that arrived at the site, leading to two vehicles being destroyed and those inside being killed and wounded. The soldiers of the Khilafah also set up an ambush for a 4-wheel drive vehicle transporting members of the Rafidi "Salam Detachments" militia in the area of Kuwayti in Ishaqi. They fired a hail of bullets at them, disabling the vehicle and killing those inside.
